1st Quarter 2024 Report to Trinity Bank Shareholders

Dear Shareholder

For the 1st Quarter 2024, your Bank posted net income of $2,028,000 Million or $1.80 per diluted common share compared to $1,938,000 or $1.70 per diluted common share in the same period of 2023. This performance represents a 4.64% and 5.88% increase respectively. With the current volatility in today's world and the financial markets, we are pleased with these results, but remain cautious due to the number of unknowns that our country is currently facing.

Choose a topic, any topic, and one realizes (whether you want to believe it or not) that all of us are affected in some way by the following:

- 1) Stagnant high inflation
- 2) Increased interest rates (short, long, mortgages, student loans)
- 3) Fed Guidance Uncertainty
- 4) Presidential Election Year (political in-fighting)
- 5) Middle East Conflict, Russia Conflict, Open Borders
- 6) And many more

With these in mind, your Bank is committed to our core principles and values to ensure safety and soundness of the Bank. We pride ourselves on banking individuals, operators, and shareholders that have sound financial stability and their principles align with ours. As a result, our performance has been steady in light of the current uncertainties.

Throughout the Texas banking market, we have friends and colleagues that are involved with a variety of financial institutions (community, regional, and national banks). The general consensus among a large number of these colleagues is that loan volume and requests are down considerably. Without knowing their existing book of loans, this decrease is probably due to their mix of loans (mainly real estate loans), increased rates (which have caused many projects to lose their viability), a lack of liquidity and overall political uncertainty.

With Trinity Bank being a true C&I (Commercial and Industrial) lender that banks operating businesses and individuals, we have been fortunate to uphold a steady loan pipeline. This again is a testament to our diversified customer and shareholder base. Even with increased rates, our customers have good backlogs, thus creating good financing opportunities. We ended the 1st Quarter at $312 Million in loans, up from $297 Million in the 4th Quarter 2023.

Even with a steady loan pipeline and good 1st Quarter numbers, we remain focused on our underwriting and credit practices. If you happen to hear of a good company that is getting mistreated by their existing bank, please let us know, as we stand ready to take advantage of quality opportunities.

Technology Update

Trinity Bank has always committed to providing top-tier technology to help our customers manage their banking. As such, we are pleased to announce some technological upgrades that will be rolling out in 2nd Quarter of 2024. Our website has been updated and refreshed to allow for more functionality and efficiency for our customers - (www.trinitybk.com). In addition to the website, we will be unveiling a new mobile and online banking platform in the month of May. We, as team, have spent countless hours investigating new online banking platform providers and have been working the past 18 months to provide a “best in breed” platform for our customers. We believe our new platform will provide a stronger, even more efficient experience for our valued customers geared toward making our customers lives better.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

We will be hosting our Annual Shareholder’s Meeting on Tuesday, July 23rd at 4 p.m., here at the bank. Please plan to come if your summer schedule allows. It is always great to catch up with you, our loyal Shareholders, at the meeting.

SUCCESSION PLAN

We have attached an update to our succession plan. We are pleased that our hard work over the last 6 years has had a produced a successful transition.

Succession Plan Update

"I'm looking forward to the future because I have confidence that everything will be in good hands and, I love it when a plan comes together,"

*Jeff Harp, Shareholder Letter
October 12, 2023*

Trinity Bank was founded twenty-one years ago by Jeff Harp who believes that building a strong bank is first and foremost about relationships.

Sure, it involves the management of assets and financial transactions but the underlying value of our bank is the relationships we have built with you, our customers and shareholders. These relationships, coupled with our core values and strong, conservative principles have been the cornerstone of Trinity Bank's success since 2003.

Jeff, being keenly aware of the importance of these critical components, along with the blessing of the Board of Directors began the succession planning process more than seven years ago. This was the first step in preparing for the moment when the next generation would guide the bank he founded, by following the same sound approach to the transition as we have for the day-to-day operations of the bank.

As a result, we announced in May of 2018 the beginning of a thoughtful and deliberate transition in leadership which included the formation of the bank's current management team. It has been our mission, with each step along the way, to keep you informed and updated on our progress.

In January of 2020, the board officially announced the succession plan publicly naming Matt R. Opitz the Chief Executive Officer, Barney C. Wiley the President and Richard A. Burt the Chief Operating Officer, while Jeff remained as Chairman of the Board.

The only change to the management structure since January 1, 2020 was the intentional transition of Jeff's responsibilities. Once the transition was complete, Jeff announced a planned sabbatical in his October 12, 2023 letter to stakeholders.

The sabbatical was a success and signaled the completion of our succession planning process. The lack of succession planning has been one of the leading causes of the vast amount of bank consolidation we have seen over the years. Jeff, once again, led the charge to achieve what most of his competitors could not, the passing of the torch to the next generation. As a result, today we announce Jeff Harp's retirement from Trinity Bank.

As you have seen the gradual and methodical change in leadership and while we've known for some time this day would come, it doesn't make it any easier for anyone. Jeff's banking career has been legendary, to say the least. He has been a banker in Fort Worth, Texas for more than 50 years and accomplished things most bankers could only hope to achieve.

Although Jeff has made the decision to retire from Trinity Bank employment and as a director, the impact he has made on Trinity Bank and the North Texas banking community will remain a big part of our identity. His incredible impact will continue to live on as we honor him and his legacy by carrying the same values and operating with the same sound principles. It is those principles that have brought us to this day and have put us in a position to be successful in the future.

Here at Trinity Bank, we take the time to know every customer by name. We pledge to provide the technology and the products of a “big bank” with the personal touch of the hometown bank you have come to know and appreciate.

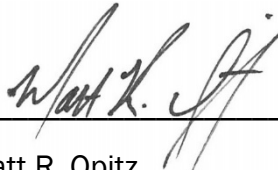

We will respond quickly and in a manner that ensures we understand the opportunities you pursue or the challenges you face in order to provide a value-added, creative solution to your financial needs.

We are in the business of providing exceptional experiences that work to make our customer’s lives better. We believe that doing the right thing, in the right way, for the right reason never goes out of style.

These principles are the foundation Trinity Bank was built on as well as what will continue to guide us forward. It is with much respect and reverence that we say, Thank You for all you have done Mr. Harp!

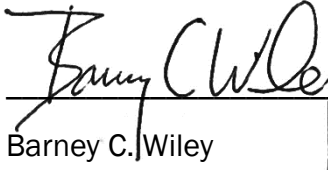

We will honor Jeff and his legacy at the annual meeting of our shareholders on July 23, 2024. We are collecting words of appreciation to share with the Harps. We invite you to share with us your positive reflections about the relationship that you have had with him and Trinity Bank and what it means to you by sending an email to thankyoujeff@trinitybk.com.

Sincerely,
